PEACE CONFERENCE, ST. LOUIS, IN 1904

This is Plan of Congressman Barthold, Who Returned from Visima To-Day on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse.

SEEKS THE PRESIDENT'S AID.

All that is Necessary is to Have Congress Issue an Invitation for Distinguished Body of Men to Meet in This Country.

After an uneventful trip the steame Caiser Wilhelm der Grosse arrived this norning with 1,969 passengers on board The first two days out the big ship stuck her nose into heavy seas and some very yough weather, but the rest of the voyugh a heavy haze olung to the nent among the arrivals was ssman Richard Barthold, of St. Louis, returning from the International cace Conference at Vienna. He attended the meeting at his own expense, thout the formal letters from this overnment that usually accompany uch a mission, although his position ing the other delegates was authentic

Mr. Bartold comes back to America with much enthusiasm over the proswe visit of the peace delegates of world to this country next year. Voted to Come.

To an Evening World reporter he said: "The Peace Conference at Vienna has unanimously to come to the ited States next year, if Congress il issue a formal invitation. The mat-came up during the convention, and a surprised to find the desire on the I was surprised to find the desire on the part of all delegates to visit this country so unqualifiedly expressed. It will be a big thing for the United States if this representative body of men, some two hundred in all, should come here.
"I am going to visit President Roosevelt this afternion at Oyster Bay and ask him to use his influence with Cincress for the appointment of a commitgress for the appointment of a commit-

Want No Appropriation

The members of the Peace Congress which met at Vienna, are willing to take the trip to America without any assurce of an appropriation from this Gov-nment covering their own expenses They prefer to make that an individual batter, so all the Government needs to do is to appropriate enough money to

PRISONER KILLS

Louis Weber, a Cabman, Arrested on Charge of Petit ceny, Hangs Himself in the West Sixty-eighth St. Station.

Arrested on a charge of petit larceny, Louis Weber, of No. 167 West Sixtisth street, committed suicide in a cell in the West Sixty-eighth street police station this morning by strangulation.

Weber, who was a cab driver and hore a good reputation, was arrested on a warrant issued by Magistrate Mayo in the West Bide Court. 'It was served last night by a court officer and, pro-testing his innocence, Weber was taken n charge by the doorman.

A few minutes after midnight the doorman of the station house peered into the cell and saw Weber lying on the floor. He called to him, and when he did not answer, entered the cell.

The prisoner had taken a bandana handkerchief and, tying a noose in it, placed it about his neck. The other end he had tied to the water faucet in the cell and thrown himself upon the floor. Thus he strangled himself. An ambulance was called from Roose welt Hospital and Dr. Alemore, who responded, pronounced Weber dead. He said life had been extinct only a few minutes.

The doorman says he saw Weber fiftern minutes before sitting on the bench in the cell, and was away from the cells only long enough to attend to calling the men and other duties necessary when the platoons are changed at mid-

POLICE AFTER WILD JUMPS FROM CAB MAN IN THE WOODS

The Mysterious Individual Who Frightens Residents of Portchester Has Eluded a Searching Force for a Week.

(Special to The Evening World.)
PORTCHESTER-ON-SOUND, N. Y., Sept. 22.-A wild looking individual, believed to be a lunatic who escaped from some institution, has been hiding in the woods near Ridge Street, Portchester, for a week, and Chief of Police Donovan has tried in vain to capture him.

The man has been seen a number of times on his knees praying, but no one has been able to get near enough to speak to him. Several times he has come out into the clearing, but as soon as he sees any one coming he darts back into the thicket.

Residents in the vicinity almost night-Thus far the man has made no attempt to approach any houses in the vicinity, but still the people are alarmed, and the police will make a determined effort to catch him.

IN FRONT OF CAR Young Woman Thought to Have Made an Attempt to Commit Suicide at Broadway and Forty-seventh Street.

Alice Burke, twenty-seven years old, of No. 335 West Thirty-eighth street, engaged a hansom cab this morning at Forty-eighth street and Tenth avenue to take her to her home. The cab was driven by Patrick Kerwin, of No. 354 West Forty-eight street.

At Broadway and Forty-seventh street the woman jumped over the dashboard of the cab and fell in front of a slowly approaching north-bound car. The motorman fothe car applied his brakes and succeeded in stopping the car be-
